

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Ninth Annual Career Service Awards Program of the National Civil Service League

1. This memorandum transmits for your signature a letter to Mr. Nicholas Kelley, President of the National Civil Service League.
2. The Agency is invited each year to nominate candidates for the Career Service Awards Program, sponsored by the National Civil Service League. This is the same award presented to Mr. Lyman Kirkpatrick in 1960 and to Dr. Sherman Kent in 1961. The Agency nominated Dr. Herbert Scoville, Jr. for the 1961 and the 1962 Career Service Awards Programs, but he was not selected in the final determination of award winners. A brochure describing the League's Awards program is attached.
3. Officials in the Office of the Director and the Deputy Directors were notified of the opportunity of recommending nominees for the 1963 awards, and they reported that they had no qualified candidates whose nominations could be adequately justified without revealing classified information.
4. It is recommended that you sign the attached letter to Mr. Kelley advising him that the Agency will not propose candidates this year.

Dear Mr. Kelley:

I have discussed with a number of our senior officers the nomination of some of our outstanding career employees for the Ninth Annual Career Service Awards Program, and we have decided that we will not propose candidates this year.

Our Agency has been highly honored by the selection of two of our officers for these awards in the past and we hope at some future time to nominate other candidates for these honors.

I wish to express my appreciation for the continued effort of the League to promote good government by recognizing and encouraging distinguished public service.
